Transformed as we Follow the Betrayed
John 13:18-30

CELEBRATION - How did we “walk in love as Christ loved us” this week?

WORD - WHAT DID GOD SAY IN HIS WORD?

Read together: John 13:18-30

Recall from Sunday:

Strengthened by God’s gracious Word (18-20), Jesus breaks bread with his betrayer (21-26) even at night (27-30).

Reflect: When was the last time someone betrayed your trust or friendship? How did you respond?

HEART - WHAT DID GOD SAY TO ME THROUGH HIS WORD?

Jesus drew strength from God’s word that God was in control even of this painful betrayal (3:18). How might it change your response to betrayal to remember that God redeems all things toward our ultimate good and his ultimate victory?

Jesus’s gentleness and fellowship with even his betrayer Judas reminds us of how patient and kind he is even with us in our rebellion and failures (3:21-26). What were some significant moments in your life of recognizing the depth of God’s forgiveness towards you? How might your own forgiveness by God impact the way you treat the people who hurt you?

WORLD - WHAT DOES GOD WANT ME TO DO ABOUT IT?

Walking in love as Christ loved us means finding ways to love even the people who betray us. Share as a group who has hurt you that you still need to forgive. Encourage and empower each other through prayer to take a step towards love and forgiveness this week.
